1. Early in May 1950, Radu and Voicu Rosculat, who were formerly active members of the National Liberal Party, were arrested together with many others in and around Constanta.

25X1X 2. Before leaving Romania, about 15 May 1950, the Rosculat family had received a clandestine communication from either Radu or Voicu saying that they were being held at Roman, in Moldavia, and that C. I. C. Bratiana, Gheorghe Tatarescu, and many other recently arrested political prisoners were also there.
